

LIFE TIMES

SINCE 1993

OCTOBER 2023

October 2023

- 2nd The Jacobites' Legacy
PM Heroes of the Holocaust
- 3rd Vicksburg and the Mississippi
PM SW Native American Pottery
- 4th Prairie School Banks
PM Solar Eclipses
- 9th Columbus' Big Idea
- 10th Heart of John Brown
(changed to 2-3:30 pm)
- 11th Thomas Hardy and Rural Life
PM Culinaria Germania
- 12th Japanese Culture and Sumo
PM Women's Rights in America
- 16th Museum of Russian Art
PM Intro to the Bible Part 1
- 17th Basques history in Idaho
- 18th Guitar Hist of 1970's @
RCTC Heintz Center
- 19th Napoleon's Lumber Fleet
- 23rd The Irish in America
- 24th Sports and Politicians
- 25th FDR's New Deal & Nat Parks
@ RCTC Heintz Center
- 26th Harvest Dinner (2023)
- 30th The Sweetest Job Ever
PM Intro to the Bible , Part 2

Thursday, October 26
5:30 - 8:00pm

Fall into Learning

Ah, Fall!

The crisp air, the autumn leaves, pumpkin spice Cheerios and lattes. The truth? I hate fall. It gets cold. It gets dark. Winter is on deck. And those leaves? They turn orange and brown because they are dying. Other living things go dormant, hibernate, or they die.

So, why am I eschewing your favorite season right now?

I, my friends, am offering you a few alternatives for apple-picking or trips to the pumpkin patch.

Start off on 10/2 with a trip back to the Holocaust, learning about some of its heroes; priests and nuns. Our own Ken Allsen comes on 10/4 with Architecture of Prairie School Banks. A double header on 10/11 with two of our favorite presenters, Taylor Hagood and Anette Isaacs. Another favorite Richard Leitch follows on the 12th telling us about Sumo. But wait, there's more: Irish immigration, the Basques, the Bible, Carol Veldman Rudie, Brach's Candy, Tom Rooney, Ric Mixer. Curl up with your laptop and your pumpkin spice whatever on your sofa to hear about the Ghosts of Apostle Islands!

The highlight of our year happens on October 26 at 5:30. That is our annual Harvest Dinner at the Rochester International Event Center. A scrumptious dinner precedes an in-person class on Teddy Roosevelt and Mark Twain by Adam Linquist. You will meet people you have formerly known only as heads.

It's LIFE folks, a program in which many people have worked hard to find classes to enlighten and entertain us retired folks. No matter the season, LIFE will be here to make your days better whether it be pumpkin spice, candy canes, Peeps, or mini-donuts.

Pamela Haase
LIFE Board Member

Learning Is ForEver...Providing adult education, insight, and engagement

2023 Harvest Dinner

Deadline:
October 16

From 1890 to 1910 a young president Roosevelt was busy trying to build a more dominate nation in order to gain a place amongst leaders at the world's table. Waring opinions of what America should look like caused mounting tension and unrest across our nation. While Roosevelt was busy sharing his insights and ideas on sculpting this "brave new world", America's most famous humorist, Mark Twain, was busy sharing his insights on the President. Join us for social hour, dinner and a presentation by award winning history presenter, Adam Lindquist. Dinner will be a salad-greens with pickled beets, goat cheese and walnuts with champagne dressing; southern fried boneless chicken breast with country gravy, mashed potatoes and green beans; and dessert- fresh baked apple pie with caramel drizzle. and a beverage. Registration Deadline: October 16