Righting a Wrong: Japanese Americans and WWII at the History Center

Following Japan's attack on Pearl Harbor on December 7, 1941, President

Franklin Roosevelt signed Executive Order 9066, which sent 75,000 Americans of Japanese ancestry and 45,000 Japanese nationals to incarceration centers. This important exhibition from the Smithsonian's National Museum of American History traces the story of those who were incarcerated and the people who survived it, bringing heart-wrenching personal stories, historic objects, stunning photographs, and engaging interactives.

Minnesota State Capitol - A 1905 Masterpiece returned to its Original Grandeur.

Take a guided tour to see the restoration effort up close and get an overview of Capitol history, art, architecture and state government. Highlights include: The largest self-supported marble dome in the world; exterior marble cleaned and repaired; decorative art, murals and paintings restored to original 1905 patterns and colors; exposed limestone foundation walls and new public spaces in basement; stories about the Capitol's history, art and architecture; the chambers where government decisions are made; and weather permitting, walk to the Quadriga (golden horses) on the roof of the Capitol. Fee includes coach bus transportation and guided tours of both the MN State Capitol and the MN History Center. Lunch is on your own at the MN History Center. No refunds after Aug 15.

Member Fee: $96

Mary Rodger's classic "Once Upon A Mattress" is a delightful musical that has become a fan favorite in theatres everywhere! Carried on a wave of wonderful songs, by turns hilarious and raucous, romantic, and melodic, this rollicking spin on the classic tale The Princess and the Pea provides some side-splitting shenanigans. For after all, a princess is a delicate things. Many moons ago in a far-off place, Queen Aggravain decreed no couples could marry until her son, Prince Dauntless, found a bride. Princesses came from far and wide to win the hand of the prince, but none could pass the impossible tests given to them by the Queen. That is, until they "shy" swamp princess, Winnifred the Woebegone, showed up. Would she be able to pass the Sensitivity Test, marry her prince and help Lady Larkin and Sir Harry to the altar? Fee includes coach transportation, theatre ticket, and lunch (choice of: bone-out short rib with mashed potatoes, green beans and au jus; chicken breast with roasted red potatoes, green beans and a sherry cream sauce; or vegetarian pasta made with house marinara and fresh vegetables; all served with potatoes, seasoned vegetables, dinner rolls, coffee/tea, and dessert). No refunds after September 1.

Christmas in the City: Holiday Tour at the Octagon Museum and Lake Elmo Inn Dinner

Thursday, December 8, 1-8:30 pm

Departs from RCTC Sports Center Parking Lot

Member Fee: $92

The setting is 1860s Hudson and the storyline highlights a number of Old World traditions, some of which are still in practice today. A beautifully decorated tree will be featured in the parlor, with wreaths in the windows, just as though the Moffat-Hughes family were with us for the holidays. Greens adorning our entries and passageways remind us of the Victorian era. The theme this year is "Burkhardt Electrifies Hudson" to portray when and how Hudson was electrified, circa 1890 to 1910s. After our museum tour, join us for a magical holiday dinner at The Lake Elmo Inn Restaurant, beautifully decorated for the season. Dinner will be a choice of beef, chicken, or vegetable entrée served with vegetable du jour, baked rolls, and baked potato. Limited to 40 participants. Fee includes coach transportation, Octagon Museum Christmas Tour, and Lake Elmo Inn dinner and dessert. Deadline and no refunds after November 10.

"Les Misérables" at the Orpheum Theatre

Sunday, December 11, 4-11:30 pm

Departs from Northrop School Parking Lot

Member Fee: $106

One of the world's most iconic and longest-running musicals, Les Misérables tells the story of Jean Valjean, a former convict who spends a lifetime seeking redemption. Set against the backdrop of 19th-century France and the aftermath of the French Revolution, this timeless story of intertwined destinies reveals the power of compassion and the quiet evil of indifference to human suffering. As Valjean's quest for a new life carries him into Paris and to the barricades of the Student Revolution, he is hunted by Inspector Javert and the ghosts of his past. Amidst a battle for the soul of Paris, he discovers the true meaning of love and salvation. Performed in over 40 countries and 22 languages, and with a lush, swelling score that features such famed songs as "I Dreamed a Dream," "On My Own," and "Bring Him Home." Les Mis brings Victor Hugo's revolutionary novel blazingly to life. Bring a bag supper for on the bus! Fee includes main floor theatre ticket and coach bus transportation. No refunds after October 20.
