LIFE: A Get-Away from the Minnesota Winter

Happy New Year! We hope you had a wonderful holiday season with friends and family. Let's hope this continuous pandemic will wear itself out and we can see a true end in the coming year. While we are waiting for that to happen let's hunker down for the long Minnesota winter and participate in the wide variety of LIFE classes offered in our new Winter Catalog. Since this pandemic began we have found that offering Zoom class in the winter has actually been a blessing- no more cancelled classes due to weather and no more slipping and sliding through the parking lot at the Heinz Center braving the cold to get to class! Chrisanne and the Program Committee have assembled an outstanding selection of classes for our viewing pleasure. Many familiar lecturers are returning, including our local favorites and interesting new ones, as well. Chrisanne has been very successful in tapping into speakers that are National Park Rangers or are specialists from the National Park's Speaker Bureau. Within this catalog we have nine such speakers! We also have several art museum offerings; a visual tour of the Andy Warhol Museum, lead by his nephew, Donald Warhola (the spelling is correct) and three separate presentations from Maine's Farnsworth Art Museum featuring Andrew Wyeth, Wyeth Fore and Aft, and Fitz Henry Lane and the Luminists.

There are so many interesting classes to choose from it will be difficult to keep within a budget!

I know one thing....the long Minnesota winter does not seem so daunting when you can look forward to a two-hour Zoom class get-away!
